. Heard. The affidavit-in-reply is filed by the respondent to the application for condonation of delay. The application for condonation of delay really makes out a case that the applicant could not move the Court in the matter due to lack of funds and access to forum and was required to approach the Legal Services Authority in the matter. It is after that she moved this Court by preferring this appeal, which is filed after the delay of more than 500 days. In our view, taking into consideration that applicant was financially incapacitated, to prepare an appeal and obtain legal aid she could not be deprived from seeking justice. Therefore, we condone the delay. The apeal be registered and listed for admission in the next week.
